ONLY 10 DAYS!

Work! Work! Work!
Republicans, you will only receive one more paper before the election and that possibly may not reach you. The election comes off on Tuesday the 11th of Oct. Don't forget the day. Be at the polls early and work all day for the ticket—the whole ticket.

$6,000.00.

This is the nice little sum, which the democracy have added upon the people of this county this year, in the way of increased taxation. Why is it? can anybody tell? Let the democratic commissioners answer. A portion of it no doubt has gone towards carrying out the locofoco Sub-Treasury Law.

$200,000.00.

This is the tune to which the last democratic (?) Legislature has increased the expenses of the state annually. Remember this at the polls.

LOOK TO YOUR TICKETS!

Beware of Fraud!
All sorts of underhand games are attempted to be played by the democracy of this county, in order to succeed at the coming election. They are riding the country day and night, circulating all kinds of falsehoods upon the Republican candidates and trying, by bribe and threats, to whip in the refractory ones. Their speakers, knowing the desperation of their cause have abandoned all argument and indulge in the most extravagant assertions and misrepresentations, where there is no fear of contradiction. Watch the rascals —expose their midnight machinations and brand their falsehoods as they deserve.

Look to your tickets carefully and see that they are all right—see that every name corresponds with the one at the head of this paper. Bogus Republican tickets will be circulated by the democracy as usual. See that none are voted.

PEOPLE OF SENECA COUNTY.

Remember,
The so-called democracy of Ohio were shouting Retrenchment and Reform; increased the expenses of the State Government largely.

Remember,
That the next Legislature, in addition to choosing a United States Senator, also apportion the State for ten years—and

Remember,
That if we do not carry the State this Fall, we may expect our opponents to fasten upon the people a more odious and unjust apportionment.

Remember,
That they increased the number of offices, as well as salaries.

Remember,
That notwithstanding some of the leaders knew that DENNISON had not managed the treasury properly, an effort was made to put him in nomination for another term

Remember,
That the "democracy" up to 1853, were pretended to be as much opposed to the extension of slavery into free Territory as the Republicans now are, and that the democracy North have been obliged

Foreign Voters

Should consider well the position of the two parties, before you cast your votes on the second Tuesday of October. If you honestly desire to promote those principles, which are for the best interests of the country at large, you will, without regard to party names or party predilections vote with that party and for those men, which you honestly think will best carry out those principles. This is but the plain duty of every true American citizen, whether native or adopted. Now we do not wish to dictate to any one how he shall vote—that is a matter for each one to decide for himself—but we do ask a candid honest and unprejudiced investigation of the position of the two great parties, on the questions that most concern us as American citizens.

You are honestly opposed to the spread of slavery and its encroachment upon the rights of free white men; you believe it is wrong and highly prejudicial to the best interests of the country. You believe Slavery degrades labor and hence you are in favor of keeping the territories free, that yourselves, your sons and daughters may enter in and possess them and build up for themselves free homes upon the vast prairies of the West. If you are in favor of freedom, free labor and free institutions and if you desire to transmit these blessings unimpaired to your children, will you vote with a party that is in power in only 3 out of the 16 free states and in 14 of the 15 slave states? a party whose whole strength is in the South, which is ruled by southern slaveholders and whose whole energies, as the history of the last ten years shows, have been directed towards breaking down the barriers for the protection of freedom and for the spread of slavery over all the territories of the United States. Every democrat, who will not bow to these behests of the Slave Power, is denounced as a traitor and driven out of the party fold.

You are in favor of a Homestead Bill, the object of which is to grant free homes to actual settlers. Then why do you support the democratic party, which has just and again defeated this just and liberal measure? Every time the proposition has come up in Congress, southern democrats, riding by their northern allies, have promptly voted it down. The democracy, as a party, are opposed to this measure because it encourages free immigration and tends to build up free states. They want the territories carved for the benefit of the 360,000 slaveholders and to the exclusion of the 25,000,000, who are not slaveholders.

The democracy believe that the slaveholders have a right to take their slaves into the territories and work them there, by the side of the white laboring man, from the free states and that no power can exclude them.

Are you opposed to these things? then vote the Republican ticket, for these are agencies above mentioned are what we are trying to prevent. Republicans deny that slavery has a right to go into the territories at all, but believe that they should be kept free for the benefit of free white laboring men of whatever land, who are hereafter to possess them; and this is one of the cardinal principles of their faith—OPPOSITION TO SLAVERY AG-GRESSION. They are also in favor of dividing up the public lands into small tracts, say 160 acres each, and giving them free of charge to actual settlers.

The democracy pretend to be the especial friends of the foreigners, but this is only to catch their votes in order to elect themselves to office. Farther than this they care nothing for them. The principles they advocate and the policy they are trying to carry out, are directly hostile to the rights and interests of our foreign population, as well as freemen of every class.

Then dissolve your connection with a party, which you once honestly believed was right, but which you now must know is wrong and which is tending to enslave not only the black man but the white man also.

Geo. E. Pugh.

The man who the democracy of Ohio delight to honor and whom they are trying to have re-elected to the United States Senate, voted for Lecompton, pure and simple, against the instructions of his own party in the Ohio Legislature and finally voted, along with L. W. Hall, for the famous English swindle.

During the last days of the session, when the question in order was the Homestead Bill in the Senate, Pugh voted, along with the South, to lay it aside and take up the bill to give the President $30,000,000 toicker for Cuba!

"Niggers for the niggers!" but no "lands for the landless!" was then and still is Mr. Pugh's motto.

Voters of Seneca, the democratic candidates for representatives in this county are pledged, if elected, to vote for Pugh's re-election and every vote cast for these men is a vote cast indirectly for Pugh.

Catch the Rascals.—Two chestnut sorrel horses were stolen from the pasture of J. B. Buck Esq., of Green Springs, on Saturday night last, between 10 and 11 o'clock. From information gathered, it is thought the thieves took a southerly direction. One of the persons suspected had been boarding with Mr.
Buck and left without paying his bill—Lynchings is not too good for such coun-drels. A reward of $75 is offered for the recovery of the horses and the detection of the thieves of $50 for the horses alone.

EVERY TOWNSHIP.

We expect to hear a good report from every township in the county, on the evening of election. Let the Republicans in every township do their WHOLE DUTY and bring out the full strength of the party. Send in routing majorities or at least reduce the democratic majorities to the lowest figure. We expect to hear good news from Thompson, Big Spring, Seneca and Hopewell and in fact from every township in the county.

Keep it before the People, that Judge Ranney, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, in the debate with Mr. Dennison at Dayton, openly declared that he was opposed to the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Act.

The Importance of having a Majority in the Next Legislature.

Since the formation of our State Government, there has not been a more important Legislature than the one we are about to elect. If the Democracy succeed in electing a majority in that body, the following results may be looked for with absolute certainty:

1. The election of George E. Pugh, or some other pro-slavery Democrat, to the United States Senate.

2. The districting of the State so that the Democracy will elect a majority of members to Congress from the State for the next ten years.

3. Such an arrangement of the "floating members" to be elected in the next ten years as to give themselves the advantage, whenever a U. S. Senator is to be elected; and in that time, there are five to be elected.

4. Such a combination of counties in Seneca District, as to give them absolute control of that body, even against strong popular majority in the State.

5. Two long sessions spent, at the expense of the people, in getting up an other miserable batch of partisan laws, such as were enacted by the Democracy last winter.

Now, we ask the people of Seneca if they are willing that this state of things should occur? If not, you have it in your power to prevent it. Do your part in helping to elect a majority to the Legislature who will put men in the U. S. Senate representing your views, and will not do as Pugh has done—misrepresented his State; who will district the State, combine counties, and distribute "floating members" on the principle of justice and equity to all; and who, after doing this, and passing such other laws as are absolutely necessary for the good government of our State, will adjourn, come home, and render an account of their stewardship to their constituents.

EVERY VOTE COUNTS!

Republicans, remember that ONE VOTE, cast for the Republican or Locofoco ticket, on the Second Tuesday of October, may decide the result in Seneca County. It may determine whether Seneca shall be represented in the next Legislature by two good Republicans, who will give their votes and their influence on the side of economy and free principle and who will vote for some good Republican for the U. S. Senate, in place of doughface Pugh—or two Locofocos, who will carry out the ultra, pro-slavery and anti-free-territories, anti-homestead bill principles of that party and who are pledged if elected to vote for the return to the U. S. Senate of that arch demagogue and political dodger, Geo. E. Pugh.
These are the consequences of the action or inaction of the Republicans of Seneca from now until the Election and at the polls, on next Tuesday week.

County Commissioner.

This is one of the most important offices to be filled at the coming county election, as upon the Commissioners depend chiefly the regulation of the finances and the safe keeping and disbursement of the people's money. The democracy have nominated for this office MICHAEL BEARD, a man who can neither read nor write and who cannot keep his own accounts—He may be honest enough, but is he fit for the important office of Commissioner?
Are the people willing to trust their money in the hands of a man who can neither read nor write and who cannot keep his own accounts? If not vote for John Swigart, an intelligent farmer and good business man.

Don't Believe Them.

When you see a Democrat, something about politics, and he tells you he "don't know," "hasn't thought about it," and such like replies, don't believe him. Each and all are doing what they can. They are leaving no stone unturned, nothing unsaid, whether true or false, likely to further their own interests. They are laboring on the sly—"ain't doing anything"— when, in fact, they were never more industrious or more anxious to succeed—Look out for them.

Republican Meetings.

The Republican meetings held thus far in the county have been well attended, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and they argue a good state of feeling. Our candidates for Representatives, Messrs. Jones and Huber, are making favorable impressions wherever they go, not by their eloquence, for oratory is not their business, but by their honest bearing, candid manner and sound sense.
They are both hard-working farmers and practical illustrations of the dignity of free white labor, which they advocate.

The Discussion.

At Columbus, between Messrs. Dennison and Ranney, the last of the series, has been postponed to next Tuesday, Oct.
1st, at which time it is expected that Dennison will use up what little is left of poor Ranney. Judge Ranney at every point of contest has come off "second best" and his friends are utterly disgusted and disheartened at his complete failure to cope with Dennison.

"Abolition" Democracy.

For five successive years, ending in 1853 the Ohio Democracy, who now endorse BUCHANAN and the Dred Scott decision, passed the following Abolition resolution:
"Resolved That the people of Ohio, as they ever have been and ever shall be, are in favor of the total and complete abolition of slavery as an evil, and unfavorable to the full development of the spirit and practical benefits of free institutions; and that they will, at all times, feel it to be their duty to use all power clearly given by the terms of the national compact, to prevent its extension, mitigate and finally eradicate the evil."

Those apostated "Abolitionists," who are now so bitter in their denunciations of those who only oppose the extension of Slavery, without proposing "radicalism" in the States, would do well to speak with a little more humility on these subjects.

Hon. Robert Schenck, formerly M.
C. from Dayton, and Minister to Brazil under Fillmore, who has heretofore persistently refused to identify himself with the Republicans, made a rousing speech a few days since, and declared himself an unwavering Republican. He will add immensely to the strength of our ticket in the Miami Valley.

More concerning Judge Ranney and the Fugitive Slave Law.

THE PROOF THAT HE DENOUNCED IT AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL IN 1850.

READ! READ! READ!!

From the Mahoning Register.

Since Judge Ranney's emphatic denial at Cleveland and elsewhere, in his discussions with Mr. Dennison, that he ever denounced the Fugitive Slave Act as unconstitutional, or even characterized it as unjust, or advocated its repeal, we have taken some pains to look a little further into the record upon the subject, to discover, if possible, whether his sentiments at that time had been misrepresented.— For this purpose, we have hunted up the files of the Mahoning Index, a Democratically published paper published by J. R. CHURCH, Esq., in Canfield, at the time the "indignation meeting" was held at which Mr.
Ranney was present and spoke. In the issue of that paper bearing date November 1, 1850, in addition to the official report of the meeting (heretofore published by the Ohio Republican), we find the following editorial article, reviewing the proceedings, and giving a brief report of the various speeches made upon the occasion. Mr. Church, who is still a resident of Canfield, and one of its most esteemed citizens, will testify to the correctness of the report then made by him of Judge Ranney's remarks. Besides, Mr. Ranney was attending Court in Can-field at the time, and undoubtedly saw the article, but did not attempt to say that he had been misrepresented. Furthermore, the editor would not have dared to misrepresent him, when there was such a cloud of witnesses to testify to the facts.
We give the article entire:

From the Mahoning Index of Nov. 1, 1850.

DEATH TO OPPRESSION.

The Indignation Meeting for Mahoning County came off here on Wednesday, the 30th, in the Court House, and a grand, sublime and inspiring Convention it was of the freemen of Mahoning. We are happy in being able to say that no doug-face attended the Convention, for the blessed reason that Mahoning County contains none, or at least but few who stand ready to justify the infamous Fugitive Law, or to sing psalms to the slave power of the South, which fattens upon the sweat, the blood and death of his fellow man! No one, we say spoke to the assemblage of one thousand freemen, who did not denounce, as unwarranted, unlawful and infamous, the Fugitive bill of '50, and pledge himself and all his God-given powers to seek its repeal, and to defeat the oppressive and disgusting features of this doughface and hellish emanation of infamous, impious and distempered minds.

His Honor, Judge Pugh, the President of the Convention, after having presided for about one hour, upon the merits of the bill, in his emphatic manner denouncing not only the bill, but all who voted for it, or skulked from its passage; and the way he held up His Accidency, Mr. Fillmore, for whom in '48 he voted, was a caution to all politicians. It appeared to do the souls of the audience good to hear the true-hearted Wagon pour out his spleen in withering anathemas upon the infamous panders from the North (to the Slaveocracy of the South) upon the passage of this most infamous and diabolical law.

Next upon the forum was called, by the unanimous voice of the meeting, Rev.
P. RANNEY, of Trumbull, a distinguished delegate to make our Constitution—one of the brightest minds in Ohio, and an old Democrat and nothing else in politics.
He expounded the Fugitive Law, and said that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he would not vote for it, and that he
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
for it, and that he would not vote for it,
and that he would not vote for it, and
